FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Becker Staffing Group presents a webinar on “Multistate Employer Considerations”

Livingston, N.J., July 2019 – On July 10, 2019, The Becker Staffing Group presented a webinar covering the topic, “Multistate Employer Considerations.” Panelists, Christopher Leddy, Esq. and Sarah Davis, Esq. presented legal trends and considerations for employers who have employees in multiple states, or are contemplating doing so. Chris and Sarah discussed the following issues impacting the staffing industry:

- A) Predictive scheduling and its extensive compliance requirements
- B) Questions involving an applicant’s criminal history and when those questions maybe asked
- C) The #MeToo movement and the resulting newly issued regulations which vary from state to state
- D) Paid sick leave and the various jurisdictions which require employers to provide employees with the same
- E) The effect of states permitting or not permitting the use of medical marijuana and whether it is considered a reasonable accommodation
