FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Becker Meisel Attorneys to Speak at Educational Seminar for Professional Engineers

Cherry Hill, N.J., June 29, 2012 – Becker Meisel attorneys, David Sprong, Kenneth Roth and Timothy Szuhaj will be among the featured speakers at a seminar focused on legal issues for professional engineers. “Legal and Ethical Issues for Professional Engineers”, presented by Halfmoon LLC, will be on Thursday, July 26, 2012, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the Crowne Plaza Cherry Hill.

Mr. Sprong, a firm partner, will review topics including employment contracts; independent contractor issues; and wage and hour compliance. Mr. Roth, of counsel to the firm, will discuss the various forms of business organization – corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, sole proprietorships and limited partnerships. Mr. Szuhaj, a partner at the firm and chair of the Business Services Group, will address intellectual property essentials for engineers, including patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets.

This continuing education seminar offers up to 7.0 continuing education hours (PDHs), including 2.0 ethics hour, for New Jersey professional engineers. For details, click here for the seminar brochure. To register, visit www.halfmoonseminars.com.
