Partner Joseph G. Harraka Attends American Bar Association Insurance Coverage Litigation Seminar

Livingston, N.J., April 29, 2013 – Becker Meisel’s Joseph G. Harraka recently attended the American Bar Association’s 2013 Insurance Coverage Litigation Committee CLE Seminar in Tucson, Arizona. Members of the firm’s Insurance Coverage Group have participated in this annual event for the past several years.

The event was attended by insurance practitioners from across the country and addressed a wide range of topics relevant to the insurance industry, including emerging trends in coverage for construction risks, recent developments in environmental claims, and the unique issues presented when professional liability and D&O coverage are implicated in the same case.

“Joe’s attendance and participation at this leading industry event is a demonstration of the firm’s longstanding and continued commitment to its insurance company clients,” said Managing Partner Martin Borosko, “furthering the firm’s reputation as being one of the foremost insurance coverage litigators in the New Jersey legal marketplace.”

Becker Meisel Insurance Coverage Group has over 50 years of collective experience in representing insurance companies involving a wide variety of first-party and third-party coverage cases and bad faith related issues.
