Co-Founding Member Ben H. Becker Recognized by the Historical Society of the District of New Jersey

Livingston, N.J., May 17, 2012 – Ben H. Becker, Becker Meisel’s co-founding member and co-chair of the firm’s bankruptcy, insolvency and creditors’ rights group, was recognized by the Historical Society of the District of New Jersey for his contributions at the 14th Annual Honorable William H. Gindin Bankruptcy Bench-Bar Conference on Friday, May 11, 2012, at the East Brunswick Hilton.

“The firm is thrilled that Ben has received this great and deserved honor by an organization for which he holds in such high regard,” said Managing Member Martin L. Borosko. “The Historical Society plays a vital role in the preservation of the state’s District Court, and we are very proud of Ben’s various contributions.”

The Historical Society of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey has been celebrating and preserving the 220-year history of New Jersey’s District Court, the second oldest in the Nation, for 20 years. The Society has created and hosted numerous programs commemorating the history of the Court, as well as actively taking the lead in restoring and highlighting historic Courthouse artwork. They have also commissioned a comprehensive history of the Court written by a local scholar, which is believed to be the only history of a District Court in the Country.

The Society provides many opportunities for camaraderie between the Bench and Bar, which include their annual judicial reception for members, their Chairman's Ball and numerous other events throughout the year. The 14th Annual Honorable William H. Gindin Bankruptcy Bench-Bar Conference was presented by the New Jersey State Bar Association Bankruptcy Law Section in cooperation with the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.
