FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Partner Timothy Szuhaj Elected to Philadelphia-Based Schuylkill Center Board of Trustees

Cherry Hill, N.J., October 21, 2011 – Becker Meisel’s Intellectual Property and Technology Group Chair, Timothy J. Szuhaj, has recently been elected to the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education Board of Trustees. Based in Philadelphia, the Schuylkill Center’s mission is to promote, through environmental education, the preservation and improvement of our natural environment by fostering appreciation, understanding and responsible use of the ecosystem; and to maintain the facilities of the Schuylkill Center and conserve its land for the purpose of environmental education.

“The Schuylkill Center is thrilled to welcome Tim to our board,” says Mike Weilbacher, Executive Director, Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education. “He brings a wealth of experience, insight and energy to our team, coupled with a strong appreciation for our environmental mission.”

Mr. Szuhaj specializes in intellectual property law and portfolio management, technology law, Internet law, and e-commerce law. He also handles general corporate and commercial matters. His private practice includes prosecution of trademark, service mark and copyright applications and assignments (foreign and domestic); negotiating and drafting numerous licenses, including software, patent, trademark, trade name and technology licenses; managing all aspects of various clients' intellectual property portfolios, including cost management associated with creating and maintaining such portfolios, drafting cease and desist letters, and employment contracts and employee handbooks regarding work for hire and confidentiality; advising clients on the formation and operation of businesses; drafting agreements for joint ventures, channel partners and numerous varieties of "go to market" ventures; and negotiating and drafting general corporate and commercial documents.

Mr. Szuhaj says, “Environmental concerns are at the forefront of current national debate. On a regional basis, the Schuylkill Center plays an important role in conserving valuable lands and advancing environmental education. I am delighted to contribute my experience in legal matters, finance, and intellectual property to support the Center's important and timely mission.”
